

ŽENSKI: female vs. feminine

<http://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/female-or-feminine-male-or-masculine>

We use female to refer to the sex of humans and animals. – We use feminine when we refer to the qualities that we consider to be typical of women. – We also use masculine and feminine to talk about features of languages.