

CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION

Macedonian Association of Translators and Interpreters wishes to extend their sincere gratitude to

Remzo Skenderović

from the Association of Scientific and Technical Translators of Slovenia – Ljubljana

for his participation at the Sixth Annual Conference entitled “Court Translation & Courtroom Interpreting in Macedonia”

that was held in the Porta Hotel in Skopje, on 17.11.2018

The situation with court translation and courtroom interpreting in Macedonia is a burning issue whose many unresolved and unclarified properties pose obstacles in the everyday work of translators and interpreters.

With his presentation on the topic of Court translation & courtroom interpreting in Slovenia, Remzo Skenderović made a small, yet significant contribution to shedding light on the situation with the court translation and courtroom interpreting in Macedonia and to overcoming the identified deficiencies. His presentation sparked genuine interest among the conference participants and will certainly be the subject of further meetings and workshops of MATA.

With this Certificate of Appreciations addressed to Remzo Skenderović we would also like to express our sincere hope that a fruitful cooperation awaits MATA both with him and with the institution/organisation he represents.

Sincerely yours,

Ognena Nikuljski,

President
